4.3.1 - Institution frequently updates its IT facilities including Wi-Fi

Response:

The Institution has 3 modernized and sophisticated Computer Laboratories with 250 mbps broadband connectivity. Computer Labs are supported by UPS and Printers. Computers with internet connectivity are provided to all the departments for carrying out the department work.

The College also has 16 LCD Projectors and screens, 2 Xerox machines and 4 Printers to facilitate teaching-learning process. There are Computers with Internet Facility in Office, Library, Exam Cell and other key areas of the college.

The primary goal of the computer labs is to provide assistance to the students that will enhance their chances of succeeding in technology-based learning. The access of these labs is made available to the students. The computer labs support the curriculum of the college, to surf the course related content and to complete the assignments of the instructors. The students are able to use the computer labs to surf the extra knowledge that is related to their study. The labs provide one-to-one access to students for a variety of peripherals.

These labs are not only a workstation for the students to sharpen the computer skills but also provide support, guidance to the students taking up the projects in the field of Arts, Commerce and Science. To improve the skills of language these labs are used by the students.

The college campus has the facility of Wi-Fi for all the students and staff members. The faculties are also encouraged to use the multimedia computers which are provided with internet connectivity at their respective departments to prepare computer aids and teaching and learning material.

At the end of every year, the management meets the faculty of each department to discuss the additional facilities to be provided during the next academic year and as per the requirements listed out by the faculty and in accordance with the needs that arise on account of introducing new subjects or starting new programmes, steps are taken to provide them before the commencement of the academic year. Similarly, in case any new software is required, order for procuring the same is placed immediately.
